

Sexual Abuse Awareness for Self Advocates

People with disabilities are invited to talk about sexual abuse. Guests (staff, family members, friends, etc.) will be asked to wait outside the meeting space to respect everyone's privacy. A trained sexual abuse counselor will be available, and a Comfort Room for people who may need to take a break.

Tuesday, October 8th, 2019, 3-6pm

ACHIEVA

711 Bingham Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15203

Register with Rose by 10-4-19

Call: 412.995.5000 Ext. 454 or Email: rwarman@achieva.info

We'll talk about the facts around sexual abuse.

Human body parts	Sexual acts
How to learn more	Sexual abuse
What consent is	Ways to say NO and Tell
What reporting means	Your rights
Survivors	Where, when, and by whom sexual abuse happens

Power Coach Savannah says,
"When we learn new things, we are powerful!"

Contact us at the email or phone listed above by Thursday, August 29th if you need accommodations (sign language, braille, CART, etc.).

Professional self advocates and skilled facilitators develop materials and lead the conversation.

The Self Advocacy Power Network for All (SAPNA) project is funded and approved by the PA Office of Developmental Programs (ODP), Department of Human Services.

SAPNA is managed by Self Advocates United as 1, Inc.
